Troubleshooters win 1st at Hunting Skills Tournament

The Troubleshooters 4-H Club junior team won first place at the Hunting Skills Tournament on January 11th at Millstone 4-H Center. Luke Chappin was 3rd high individual.

The Hunting Skills Tournament consists of 6 stations: rifle, shotgun, 3-D archery, wildlife identification, hunting skills trail, and hunter decision making.

Congratulations to all the Troubleshooters on their great representation of Iredell County 4-H!
