Kids learn to respect the land, handle animals with care and to value hard work. Of all these lessons, it's also important that kids learn to practice safety and health every day. After all, farm safety isn't common sense—kids must be taught how to recognize hazards and to respond safely. Emphasizing and enforcing farm safety and health practices from a young age ensures that the next generation of agricultural leaders grow up healthy!

PAPER CLOVER DAYS AT TRACTOR SUPPLY

Paper Clover Days happening now until May 7th! Youth have the opportunity to earn $10 in Clover Bucks by volunteering to run the display booth at either location in our county (Statesville or Mooresville) for 2 hours. During this time, they can promote 4-H and the activities that they participate in! Funds raised at our local stores come back to our county's 4-H Program! If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Adreanna, awhite6@ncsu.edu or 704-873-0507.

The flyer is for the NC 4-H Congress, held from July 22-25, 2023, at NC State University in Raleigh, NC. It features a green background with a white central panel. The top left corner has the NC State Extension logo. The main title 'NC 4-H CONGRESS' is in large, bold, blue letters, with the dates 'JULY 22 - 25, 2023' below it. A large yellow sun with a blue wave and a 4-H clover is on the left, with the text 'Make Waves' and 'It's your turn to change the world.' A red and orange sailboat is on the right. The 'HIGHLIGHTS' section lists workshops, state officer elections, honor club tapping, candlelighting ceremony, service project, talent show, and dance. It also includes contact information for more details and the dates 'SAT - TUE. JULY 22 - 25, 2023'. The bottom left says 'OPEN TO YOUTH AGES 13 - 18.' and the bottom right says 'NC STATE UNIVERSITY RALEIGH, NC'. A small disclaimer at the very bottom states that N.C. Cooperative Extension prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex (including pregnancy), disability, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, political affiliation, and veteran status.
